

Eliot Ness Fest: Touched by the Untouchable Update No. 10

Every hero needs a villain, and villains are people, too.

At least that's the premise of "Pasta with Capone," a most fitting addition to the schedule for the Eliot Ness Fest. The Chicago mob boss who, despite his brutality and greed, was still regarded as a folk hero by some in the Windy City will give "his side of the story" while we're celebrating the life and career of Eliot Ness.

He'll be holding court at his favorite eatery, La Famiglia OIP on Coudersport's East Second Street, and you can join in on the fun.

There are two seatings of 'Pasta with Capone' - Saturday, July 21st at 12:30p and Sunday, July 22nd at 12:00 p.m. TICKETS AVAILABLE HERE.

Big Al (don't call him "Scarface." he prefers "Snorkey") will explain how he's so misunderstood, and what a great guy he is. And you can even ask him questions. (Spoiler alert: Snorky will be singing a different tune later in the Eliot Ness Fest).

How long until you would try to break out of Alcatraz?

Test your skills in a mini traveling version of a jail break escape room during the Eliot Ness Fest. An escape room is a type of physical adventure game in which you and your friends are locked in a room and have to use elements of the room to solve a series of puzzles, find clues, and escape the room within 15 minutes. Sponsored by the Hotel Crittenden, the Jail Break Escape Room will be located on the Courthouse Square throughout the weekend - see if you can make the break! See other escape rooms at: nickoftimeescapes.com.

Two professional photographers will be on hand to help you capture your memories at the inaugural Eliot Ness Fest. Andrew Zappone, complete with vintage cars and Roaring '20s models, will be all over town offering his services for those who want a special souvenir of the festival. Meanwhile, Curt Weinhold has set up a special old-time photo set at Jack's Place from 1-3 pm on Fri. and Sat.
