GRANDSON OF 'UNTOUCHABLE' COMING TO FESTIVAL

Join us on Sunday afternoon, July 22, at the Coudersport Theatre for a special presentation titled "Meet the REAL Eliot Ness." Joining panelists A. Brad Schwartz and Paul W. Heibel at an authors' roundtable will be Asst. U.S. Attorney Scott Sroka (shown), a respected law enforcement professional. He's the grandson of Joe Leeson, a valued member of the Eliot Ness-led crime-busting squad, "The Untouchables." The program will also have some special surprises.

Actors Needed for 'Street Theater'

So you say you want to be a gangster? Now is your chance! The Eliot Ness Fest committee needs actors to fill about a dozen different character roles for gangsters and G-men at the July 20-22 festival in Coudersport.

We need people who will recite a few lines in our dramatic "street theater," as well as volunteers for silent roles on both sides of the law. The re-enactments that we have planned are very authentic, entertaining, educational and downright fun! If you want to be a part of this exciting, one-of-a kind event, please contact Paul Herzig at 814-274-9220 or Bill Pekarski at 814-558-0012.

VINTAGE AUTOMOBILES TO LINE THE STREETS

The committee planning "Eliot Ness Fest: Touched by the Untouchable" is seeking participants in the Ness/Capone-Era vintage car show, scheduled for Saturday, July 21, from 9 am to 2 pm in Coudersport.

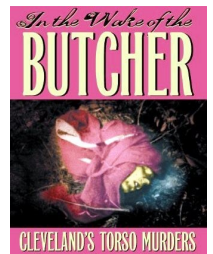

The Car Show will be on Main Street, rendering downtown Coudersport a scene out of the Roaring '20s to all visitors who come.

If you have a vintage car or truck of a model year 1931 or older, and are interested in bringing it to Coudersport and participating in the show, please contact Steve Green at stephenagreen1952@gmail.com.

WEEKLY NESS FACTOIDS

One of the most fascinating cases in Eliot Ness's crimefighting career was a serial killer, nicknamed "The Mad Butcher," who terrorized Cleveland. At least 13 deaths were attributed to the murderer, who dismembered his victims and was never brought to justice. It's actually still buried in the city's cold case files. This fascinating episode in Eliot's life will be the focus of a program at the Coudersport Theatre on the evening of July 20.

Eliot Ness Fest: Touched by the Untouchable will be held in Downtown Coudersport July 20-22, 2018. Like us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/eliotnessfest. Our website is under construction, check back for updates: www.eliotnessfest.com. Email questions - click here.
